

Bay City Independent School District 2022-2023 Extracurricular Code of Conduct

1. Extracurricular Activities: General Provisions

What is an Extracurricular Activity?

Any University Interscholastic League (UIL), School District, or campus-sponsored or related public performances, events, contests, demonstrations, displays, club activities, athletics, whether on- or off-campus;

Any elected offices and honors (such as student counsel and homecoming queen);

All co-curricular activities, which are those held in conjunction with a credit-bearing class, but that may take place outside of school and outside of the school day (such as band and choir);

All national organizations (such as National Honor Society or Future Farmers of America); and

Any activity held in conjunction with another activity that is considered to be an extracurricular activity (such as a meeting, practice, or fundraiser).

Why are Extracurricular Activities Important?

They promote self-discipline, responsibility, leadership, teamwork, self-confidence, commitment, and student wellness.

They enhance and enrich curricular educational offerings.

They offer participants the opportunity to be leaders and role models on campus and in the community.

They enable participants to represent the School District in a positive manner.

2. Jurisdiction

Who is Subject to the Extracurricular Code of Conduct?

Any student who participates in one or more extracurricular activities is subject to the Extracurricular Code of Conduct (ECC). A student is subject to the ECC from the time he/she is selected for, elected to, or otherwise joins an extracurricular activity and continues to be subject to the ECC from that point forward unless or until the student no longer participates in extracurricular activities.

When Does the Extracurricular Code of Conduct Apply?

The privilege of representing the School District carries with it a greater responsibility to conduct oneself with respect and dignity, and to serve as a role model for all students. Consequently, extracurricular activity participants are expected to comply with the ECC at all times, regardless of location. This includes both on and off-campus conduct as well as evenings, weekends, holidays, and summer vacation.

3. Conduct Expectations

What is Expected of Extracurricular Activity Participants?

Participants in extracurricular activities are representatives of the School District, and must conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the School District at all times. Specifically, they must:

Maintain an average of 70% or better in all academic courses, except as provided in District policy FM (Legal);

Be punctual and prepared for all games, practices, meetings, performances, camps, and/or other scheduled events related to an extracurricular activity;

Treat all school property with respect and ensure that school property is returned upon request and in good condition (excluding reasonable wear and tear);

Abide by the District's dress and grooming standards for students as well as any dress and grooming standards applicable to the specific extracurricular activity;

Comply with UIL rules, including those related to random steroid testing, if applicable;

Be courteous and respectful toward all fellow participants, school faculty and staff members, spectators, parents, and officials, whether from Bay City ISD or from any other school district;

Provide 24 hours advance written notice to the coach or sponsor of an activity if they are unable to attend a game, practice, meeting, performance, and/or other scheduled event related to the extracurricular activity;

Comply with all rules and guidelines in the ECC and those established for a specific extracurricular activity in which the student participates; and

Comply with and adhere to the behavioral standards identified in the District's Student Code of Conduct.
